About half-past nine Sunday morning two men coming into Pioche from Bul-The Narrow-guage Railroad in Oplionville in a carriage, noticed, just beeration-The Trial Trip-It is yond the Alps hoisting works, (a little over a mile from the city,) a mule ore-At Bullionville, day before yesterday, team moving along the roal without a driver. They watched the mules until the heavily loaded wagon came in contact with a large cedar tree, when they stopped. Coming on a hundred yards further they found a man lying, face downward, in the middle of the road. They at first supposed him dead, but found, on picking him up, that he was alive and sble to speak. Having a bottle of whisky in their carriage, they brought it to him and asked him if he would take a drink. "No," he distinctly answered. "Will you have some water?" was asked. "Yes," he said. Bringing him a glass of water from the Alps office he drank it heartily, and then began talking to his team, as if he were still driving them. He was then taken into the Alps office and laid on a couch, and a man was sent for a physician. Dr. Rogers was quickly on the ground, who, at the first glance, pronounced the case a hopeless one. The unfortunate man, who, it had by this time been ascertained, was Edwin Olds, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Pioche, was at once removed to his home in this city, on Pioche street. Notwith. team moving along the road without a between one and two o'clock in the afternoon, the last spike-a silver spike-was driven into the rails of the Nevada Central Narrow-guage Railroad, and it is now completed between Pioche and Bullionville. A large concourse witnessed and participated in the ceremony, much enthusiasm being manifested. At three o'clock a fire was kindled in the furnace of the fine new locomotive "Colonel J. F. Carter," and half an hour later steam was up and it was snorting for its first trial trip. The J. F. Carter has an IIinch stroke, 3 drivers and single "pony," inch stroke, 3 drivers and single "pony," and weighs 36,000 pounds. At half-past 3 o'clock it was put in motion towards Pioche—traveling slowly, of course, as the principal object was to test the track. At Ham Light's Station, 6 miles from Pioche, a train was attached, when it came on up into the city to the turn-table at the head of Meadow Valley street. The time from Bullionville to Pioche, including the time spent at Light's Station, was just two hours, the distance traveled being 20 miles. Nicholas Remfry, the engineer, long experienced on railroads an old and highly esteemed citizen of Pioche, was at once removed to his home in this city, on Pioche street. Notwithstanding the greatest exertions on the part of Dr. Rogers and other attentive friends, he remained in the same condition as when first found—talking in a rambling and incoherent manner, until Sunday afternoon, when he became speechless, and sank rapidly, verifying the prediction of his physician. He died about half-past nine o'clock on Sunday night. Mr. Olds was a hard-working, industrious and intelligent man, of very temperate habits, and enjoyed universal respect. The supposition is that he fell into a doze on his seat on the wagon, when one of the wheels struck a bowlder or fell into a deep rut, jolting him off, and his head struck on a stone or one of the tires, resulting in concussion of the being 20 miles. Nicholas Remfry, the engineer, long experienced on railroads in that position, said he never knew a more successful trial trip over a new track. An immense crowd of people, ladies and gentlemen, had gathered at the head of Meadow Valley street, to greet the first train from Bullionville, and it was welcomed on its arrival with loud and long continued applease. heartily congratulated on the turn-table the the enterprise. From the turn-tand on locomotive leisurely steamed around on the track to the Raymond & Ely dump-the track to and his head struck on a stone or one of the tires, resulting in concussion of the brain. His face was severely braised, and likewise the back part of his head. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. His funeral took place at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, be-ing largely attended, many of the best citizens following his remains to their last resting-place. The afflicted family have the sympathies of this entire com-munity. pile, when the engine was reversed and it moved back to the turn-table. The parrow-game is a precioul moand it moves back to the unital suc-ress. The Raymond & Ely Company, for whose especial benefit it was con-structed, are heavily interested in it; but it will prove an advantage to every mining company in the district, and a blessing to the community at large, as the monthly transportation of ore be-tween Bullionville and Pioche has been enormous, while other business and the travel have been extensive and increastravel have been extensive and increasing. A train, carrying ore and with a passenger car attached, will leave Pioche for Bullionville at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The regular time-table will soon be given to the public. The other locomotive, the one first received, is now in the Company's machine-shops at Bullionville, being remodeled under the supervision of Ney Churchmen, Superintendent of the iron works, and will soon be put on the track. The completion of the railroad between Pioche and Bullionville, and its successful operation, marks an important epoch in the progress of Southeastern Nevada. EDITOR RECORD: Will you allow me through the RECORD to make an expose of a piece of villainy perpetrated by the would be immaculate good citizens of Pioche, whose names will, some time in through your valuable paper? You are aware that on or about the first of January a Protective Union was started in this place-or, in other words, a Vigilance Committee. Eight of this organization, through their Executive Committee, employed me to go on the night the real tropical fruit-such as Southern watch, taking me from work which was California only can produce-rich, paying me seven and eight dollars per day. I worked until the first of Febru-ary, and then presented my bill. I was told to keep on—that a meeting would luscious, juicy-arrived in town yesterday, direct from Los Angeles, California. We tried them, and for once since our sojourn in the Sagebush, we forgot our whereabouts, and as we dallied with the delicious fruit, memory carried us back to the halcion days when we first landed in the Golden State. we forgot our whereabouts, and as we dallied with the delicions fruit, memory carried us back to the halcion days when we first landed in the Golden State, when, with youth, health and the unknown California before us, no very vivid imagination was required, as we inhaled time after occupied, there was no place to meet. Three of the Committee, whose names 1 am willing to give, have en-deavored to get the Committee together and have the matter settled, but failed. J. H. Collier, imagination was required, as we inhaled the balmy odors of the orange groves, to the balmy edors of the orange groves, to picture a future as golden as the fruit they bore—to—more copy—and this is Monday—bills to collect, hands to settle with, and "the devil to pay"—as usual whenever we are about to say anything good. Now that we've come back to prose, we may as well mention that Goo. Davis was selling these oranges at $1 a dozen. and have the matter settled, but failed. On or about the 12th of last month a meeting of the organization was called, through your paper; but few attended; I was then told to wait until the fifth. I did so. The fifth came, and the seventh came, and I am told by some of the Committee "to sue." Now, Mr. Editor, I believe the Committee numbers about 200 meets the came. Editor, I believe the Committee numbers about 300 members, and my bill is a small amount to each individual of them, but it is $355 to me. I am compelled to sue, for the reason that I cannot afford to lose this amount. I did suppose there was some honor in the citizens of Pioche, but my confidence is shaken. Jurymen are bought as so many sheep, and the immaculate sell their honor for $1.50. If this Vigilance Committee don't arrange to settle with we had.

WE GIVE IT AS WE GOT IT. - Two intoxicated individuals were yesterday threatening to "put a head on" each other, when officer McKee stepped up and commanded the peace. One of the belligerents thereupon made hostile demonstrations towards the officer, who promptly knocked him down; the other one then moved to the attack, when Mc-Kee laid him across his inebriated companion. He then took one of them to the calaboose, and was returning, when the other came at him with a revolver.
He quickly disarmed him, and put him

ORANGES,-A wagon load of oranges-

PASSES AWAY WITHOUT A RECORD .-The man who was picked up on Saturday, beyond the Eight-mile House, dying soon after, was interred Sunday afternoon. He undoubtedly died of exhausnoon. He undoubtedly died of exhaus-tion and destitution. Many called to see the body, but none recognized the fea-tures. Another vacancy in the family circle, years of painful suspense, and never a word of hope or consolation to be whispered in the ear of bereaved parent, brother or sister! But better that his dark fate should forever be wrapped in mystery than that it should wrapped in mystery than that it should be known that he perished of hunger in a Christian land.

WHY DID IT GO BY DEPAULT?-A COT. respondent, in a spirit of patriotic india. nation, asks us why the Pioche Post of the G. A. R. did not observe Decoration Day. We are not able to answer the conundrum. He terminates his lengthy letter with the exclammatory sentence, "Oh! for an iota of the patronymic that predominated within the hearts of the Revolutionarys!" That's what we though!

ACCIDENT.-John M. Worley, of Bulby the death record in this issue, the family of Judge R. C. Foster has been visited by the saddest of bereavements. Our heartfelt sympathies are tendered lionville, who broke his arm several weeks ago by the upsetting of his buggy, while on the road to that place from Pioche, is singularly unfortunate. Yesterday he was driving out, near here, when, in making a short turn, he thought his vehicle would capsize, and jumped out, again fracturing the same member.

ANOTHER ROOFBACK .- Another mos absurd rumor of a compromise between two of our contending mining compa-nies was affoat on the street yesterday evening. The buying-off figure was put at $600,000. Whoever buys stock on these stories will be fooled.

EARLY yesterday morning a large cayote was seen trotting leisurely through the valley to the rear of the county hos-pital. They were formerly very numer-ons in this section of the country.

ABRESTED FOR INDECENT EXPOSURE Officers Boyd and Woodruff yesterday jugged a man for indecent exposure. Good; we hope hereafter to hear an ar-rest for every offense of the kind.

SNAPPED THE WIRE .- A stage driver restorday sundered, in the city, the Western Union wire, by accidentally wrapping his whip-lash around it, as he was stringing it out to reach the leaders.

RAYMOND AND ELY stock stiffened a little, yesterday, while other stocks de-clined.

RECOVERED.-I hereby certify to the following facts: For many months'I have been sorely afflicted with inflammation and introversion of the uterus. My condition and sufferings were such as they only who have suffered them can fully comprehend or appreciate. I have been confined to my room and bed for over eight months I gave all the phycicians of Pioche a fair trial of over seven mouths, and have tried every known remedy administered by the physicians, but without avail. At last, almost in despair of ever being re-lieved. I was induced, by benefitted friends, to call on Dr. W. W. Fetterman, friends, to call on Dr. W. W. Fetterman, the scientific and gentlemanly head of Pioche, located on Lacour street. He examined my case, and told me what my trouble was, and there was hopes for me. I placed myself under his treatment, and now, marvelous as it may seem, after a few weeks' treatment, I am fully restored. While I was under his treatment, he performed some of the most remarkable cures ever performed in this city. A feeling of gratitude to this benefactor of his race, as well as of a desire to spread wide this boon to the afflicted, induces me to thus openly and publicly proclaim me to thus openly and publicly proclaim my case and its cure. And now, as I am fully restored to a condition of case and health, I do most cheerfully recommend health, I do most cheerfully recommend this gentleman and his system to the suf-fering everywhere; and confidently prom-ise all that they will ever find in Dr. Fet-terman the kind physician and gentle-man which I found him.

Mrs. D. L. Best.
